

After hearing the audio file from the ARRL, it appears that if Broadband Over Power Line is allowed to go forward, the High Frequency bands will be rendered useless for Homeland Security, other government users, commercial users, amateur radio operators and anyone else who wants to utilize these frequencies. I believe similiar technology has been tried and found to be unsuitable in Germany. Please reconsider implementing this technology as it benefits only a relative few at the expense of many millions of people.